Martial Arts Community

Gateway is fortunate to be a part of a community that has the goal of improving people. One of our neighboring schools is Breakthrough Martial Arts. Mr. Jerod Hicks heads up the school and has supported the growth of martial arts in our community for the past few years. He studies under Master Denis Ogle to continue his own personal goals of improvement. He recently invited us to sit as judges at his belt test.

We enjoyed the experience and were honored to be a part of our growing martial arts community. Below are pictures from that test.
